Food Lion Expanding Pick Up Service to Make Grocery Shopping Easier

SALISBURY, N.C., June 04, 2021 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- With more shoppers opting to save time by ordering groceries online, Food Lion is excited to announce the expansion of its Food Lion To Go grocery pick up service to 32 stores in North Carolina, South Carolina and Virginia beginning June 7, 2021.

The launch of this service comes just in time to make summer shopping even easier.

Customers can confirm availability and place orders through the Food Lion To Go website or the Food Lion To Go app. With just the click of a button, shoppers can place an order and pick up their groceries on the same day and experience the same low prices and fresh food items they have come to expect without having to ever enter the store.

"Continuing to expand this service to more Food Lion stores is important to us and our customers," said Evan Harding, director of digital and e-commerce at Food Lion. "We want to give our neighbors the option to shop through the channel they prefer, in-store or online, while still ensuring they have access to fresh groceries at affordable prices."

The company continues to expand this new service across its local towns and cities, highlighting its commitment to make grocery shopping easy, fresh and affordable.

Additionally, by linking their personal Food Lion MVP savings loyalty card to their account, Food Lion customers can use digital coupons and redeem their "Shop & Earn" MVP rewards program savings.
